Graduate in Biology (1984) and doctor in Basque Philology (1993). Permanent professor in scientific communication (Komunikazioa Euskaraz: zientzia eta teknologia) at the Faculty of Science and Technology of the University of the Basque Country (UPV/EHU). She also teaches a subject about terminology and specialized texts in the HAP/LAP master. During a decade her research field was syntax, but in the last 15 years her research focus is on terminology and in the lexical and discursive development of the Basque language. She is a member of the Ixa research group in NLP. Detailed publications are available in the URL:
